

Faculty Emeritus Award

The Emeritus title is an honorary title bestowed by the College Board upon the recommendation of the President and is intended to acknowledge outstanding service by teaching and administrative/professional faculty members to Thomas Nelson Community College and Virginia Community College System.

► Eligibility

- Individual holding a faculty rank must have retired from Thomas Nelson Community College with a minimum of ten (10) years of service
- Meritorious/significant contributions to the College and/or Virginia Community College System as demonstrated by:
 - Exemplary Teaching; maintained currency to teaching field
 - Maintained currency in and demonstrated successful use of a variety of teaching methods
 - Exemplar leadership on behalf of the College through campus, college and system activities
 - Outstanding community service as an extension of college employment.